

actuators with failsafe battery pack (BSR)

The battery pack for emergency operation is integrated in the housing. When the power fails the actuator moves into a safety position. The safety position NC or NO should be specified with the order. This actuator does work like a standard actuator and has two adjustable and potential free end position switches. Battery self return.

wiring diagram

The model isn't available for J2 model 10 and R series.